SPECIAL FEATURES FOR 1886.

With the CHARMING CHRISTMAS NUMBER, December 1885, commences the NEW VOLUME, and the Publishers respectfully invite attention to some of the leading attractions for the New Year, detailed in the following:—

A NEW EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

The Publishers have concluded an arrangement with Mr. W. D. Howells by which all the new writings of that author—his novels, short stories, descriptive sketches, and dramatic pieces—will be exclusively at their disposal from the beginning of 1886. Mr. Howells is also to contribute monthly to Harper's Magazine, beginning with the January Number, an editorial department having a relation to literature corresponding to that which the "Editor's Easy Chair" has to Society. The new department will be styled the "Editor's Study."

SERIAL FICTION.

The two novels now in course of publication—Miss Woolson's "East Angels," and Mr. Howells's "Indian Summer"—easily take the foremost place in current serial fiction. These will run through several numbers, and, upon their completion, will be followed by stories from Mrs. Dinah Maria Craik, author of "John Halifax, Gentleman," and R. D. Blackmore, author of "Lorna Doone." The scene of Mr. Blackmore's new novel, "Springhaven," which will be effectively illustrated by Alfred Parsons and Frederick Barnard, will be laid in a rural district of England during the time of the Napoleonic wars. Mrs. Craik's novel will be entitled "King Arthur: not a Love Story."

A NOVEL SERIES.

The great literary event of the year will be the publication of a series of papers, taking the shape of a story, and depicting characteristic features of American Society, written by Charles Dudley Warner, and illustrated by C. S. Reinhart.

GREAT AMERICAN INDUSTRIES.

The series of papers on "Great American Industries" will be continued, under the general charge of Mr. R. R. Bowker. They will comprise "A Lampful of Oil," Sugar, Paper, Cotton, Wool, Iron, and other staple products, each artistically illustrated.

PAPERS ON ART SUBJECTS.

In a series of illustrated papers, the result of a recent extended tour of observation, Mr. Russell Sturgis will consider several of the important Cities of Europe with reference to the most notable and significant art treasures peculiar to each, and especially claiming the attention of all thoughtful readers and lovers of Art. Among other richly illustrated articles on art subjects to appear during the year may be mentioned "The new Gallery of Tapestries in Florence," "Ravenna and its Mosaics," "The Art Movement in New York," by George Parsons Lathrop; an interesting article on "Our Artist Contributors," by W. M. Laffan; and contributions by Dr. Charles Waldstein.

NATURAL HISTORY.

A paper on "Orchids," by F. W. Burbidge, F.L.S., beautifully illustrated by William Hamilton Gibson and Alfred Parsons. Mr. F. Satterthwaite will contribute a paper entitled "Plebeian and Aristocratic Pigeons," illustrated by Gibson; Hugh Dalziel one on "Dogs and their Management"; and Dr. W. T. Greene another on "The Keeping of Birds," beautifully illustrated by A. F. Lydon. Other studies in natural history will be illustrated by James C. Beard.

Several other Interesting Features, Literary and Artistic.

Mr. E. A. Abbey will continue his series of illustrations for "She Stoops to Conquer"; Mr. Alfred Parsons will supply "Sketches of the Avon"; illustrated papers will appear on "The Navies of Europe," by Sir Edward Reed, Madam Adam will contribute personal recollections of her Salon in Paris, &c.

SEND FOR A PRICE LIST OF
JOHN BLAKE'S PATENT
Self-Acting Hydraulic Rams.

For Raising Water for the supply of Towns, Villages, Irrigation, Railway Stations, Mansions, Fountains, Farms, etc.

No Cost for Motive Power, which is obtained from the Stream of Water passing through the Ram.

This Ram will force a part of the same water that works it, or will force clean water from a well or spring whilst worked by a stream of impure water. Rams on this principle can be supplied to force to a height of 1500 feet.

This view represents fig. A Ram forcing up a part of the same water that works it, which is supplied from a spring. Special Rams of A make can be supplied to force to a height of 800 feet.

TESTIMONIALS.

From Wm. Dickinson, Esq., Agent to the Most Honourable the Marquis of Abergavenny, Eridge Estate Office, Hargate Lodge, Tunbridge Wells, 3rd July, 1885.

"Sir,—I am instructed by the Marquis of Abergavenny to say that the Patent Hydraulic Ram, with over two miles of pipes, forcing water to a height of 230 feet, which you erected at Eridge Castle about nine months ago, has given his lordship entire satisfaction, and he has every confidence in its continuing to do so.—I am, Sir, yours faithfully, WILLIAM DICKINSON."

From V. F. Benett-Stanford, Esq., M.P., Pyt House, Tisbury, Wilts, August 20th, 1880.

"I have no hesitation in saying your self-acting Hydraulic Ram and Apparatus for extinguishing fire, which you laid down here, including about one mile of pipes, are very satisfactory. The Ram forces upwards of 5,000 gallons per day to a service reservoir holding 25,000 gallons, at an elevation of 295 feet, being 70 feet above the roof of the house, from which reservoir the water is distributed to the house, stables, home farm, and several cottages, and in case of fire four jets can be thrown on to the house from different sides at a great force and large volume. I consider the work has been done well and efficiently and does you credit."

From Mr. J. A. Rutherford, Agent to C. F. H. Bolckow, Esq., Estate Office, Marton Hall, Middlesbrough, 26th September, 1883.

"Dear Sir,—I am glad to say that the Rams you put down on the Hambleton Estate for Mr. C. F. H. Bolckow, are working very well. You undertook, with 16 gallons per minute, to send up 1,500 gallons per day, and with enough water to work the Rams at full power, 2,000 gallons a day. With a supply of 11¾ gallons per minute they are lifting 2,200 gallons, and when working full power, 3,105 gallons per day are sent up to a height of nearly 400 feet. They made a clear start and have gone well since."

The Delivery Pipe, in the above case, is 9,000 feet in length.

From Mr. Henry Robinson, Engineer to the Stockport District Waterworks Co., Sept. 8, 1883.

"Dear Sir,—I can now report well of the two Hydraulic Rams we have fixed to your instructions for the supply of Disley Village. 40,000 gallons per day was the quantity you promised they would force to a height of 68 feet, but on testing them I am convinced that 50,000 gallons is not the limit of their power, whilst the quantity of waste water used in driving them is not equal to half the capacity of the 6-inch pipe by which they are fed, and I am inclined to the belief that a more simple and efficient pump cannot be found."

Blake's Hydraulic Rams have been supplied to the following amongst others—

LIFE DEPARTMENT.

In the selection of an office in which to effect Life Assurances, the important points for consideration are:—

I. SECURITY.
II. THE RATES OF PREMIUM CHARGED.
III. THE CONDITIONS OF ASSURANCE.
IV. THE PROFITS TO THE ASSURED UNDER PARTICIPATING POLICIES.

It is claimed by the ALLIANCE that its large Capital, the amount of its Reserves, and the character of its investments, afford security of a very high order.

The Rates of Premium will be found moderate, and the Conditions of Assurance most favourable to the Assured.

The Reversionary Bonuses resulting from the distribution of Profits ascertained at the close of the year 1883, allotted to Policies of Five years standing, range from about—

£1 12*s.* per cent. per annum on the Sum Assured under Policies effected at age 20

FINANCIAL INFORMATION, 1st JUNE, 1885.

Total Funds	£3,272,576
Total Annual Income	£354,686
Total Amount of Claims upon Death	£2,524,560
Amount of Profits divided at the last Quinquennial Bonus	£437,347

NO AGENTS EMPLOYED AND NO COMMISSION PAID.

Attention is particularly requested to the following points respecting this Society, as being of special importance to Clergymen and their Lay relatives desiring to assure their lives :—

1.—THE SECURITY.

The Funds of the Society now amount to upwards of Three Millions and a Quarter, yielding an average rate of interest of £4 1s. 2d. per cent. The Income of the Society is upwards of Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Pounds.

2.—MORTALITY.

The superior longevity of the Clergy as a class is still manifest; the Claims by death during the past year having again been considerably less than might have been expected under the Carlisle Table of Mortality, upon which the Society's Rates of Premiums are based.

3.—BONUS.

The Society being PURELY MUTUAL, has no Proprietors, and consequently all the Profits are divided amongst the Assured Members. The Eleventh Quinquennial Bonus will be declared on 1st June, 1886, when results equally favourable with those of past Quinquenniums may confidently be anticipated.

4.—MANAGEMENT.

The Society neither employs Agents, nor allows Commission for the introduction of new business. The Expenses of Management for the past year were only £4 4s. 1d. per cent. on the total income.

NO LIABILITY INCURRED BY THE ASSURED.

The business of the Society is chiefly with a class of persons in which the average duration of life is allowed to be beyond that ordinarily found in the community at large. The experience of the duration of Life among the Members has hitherto been very favourable.

MATTHEW HODGSON, Secretary.

Applications for Assurances, &c., &c., may be made personally at the Office, 1 and 2, The Sanctuary, Westminster, or by letter addressed to the Secretary.

BURGOYNE'S
AUSTRALIAN WINES.

Each Bottle bears an Oval Label, and each Cork is branded "BURGOYNE."

"Tintara." "Tintara." "Tintara."

The Tintara Vineyard was planted by an early settler, our friend, the late A. C. KELLY, Esq., M.D., and its position (about 60 miles from Adelaide) would scarcely have been chosen had not chance discovered the choice ferruginous constituents of the soil at Maclaren Vale for Wine growing. From 60 acres the estate has, under the supervision of his son, grown to 1,700, producing per acre from 250 to 400 gallons of rich ruby wine. The intense colour of the wine is caused by the iron so largely absorbed from the soil, which gives it a most remarkably fruity, generous flavour, conveying to the palate a fresh after-tonic, invigorating taste. For enriching the blood, it has no equal, and we have the utmost confidence in recommending it as a perfectly pure, generous sustaining wine, with extraordinary dietetic properties.

Dr. PINHALL writes:—"I never realised the character and refinement Australian Wines are capable of displaying until I tasted yours."
Dr. HOGG writes:—"Your wines agree well with a delicate stomach."
The Tintara is of immense power, withal a natural wine. For cases of natural debility it has no equal.

AUSTRALIAN WINES.

P. B. BURGOYNE & Co.'s
Dr. GARDNER writes:—"The Tintara is wholesome, nutritious, and natural and highly appreciated by my patients."
The LANCET:—"The Tintara is a satisfying wine, and the constituents of grape juice abound. In robustness or body the wine is superior to the wines of France."

PREFACE.

THOUGH many books have recently been published concerning the personnel of the New House of Commons, and the representation of the various constituencies, THIS IS THE ONLY VOLUME that contains the numerous changes that have recently taken place consequent upon the resignation of the Salisbury Ministry and the formation of a new Cabinet by Mr. Gladstone. It also furnishes biographical sketches of all members elected to the present Parliament before Feb. 17th inst.; and in the section devoted to constituencies the result of every election is duly noted.

The dual nomenclature of new constituencies* is rendered easy for reference by an original plan, in which the "alternative" title is included in the alphabetical arrangement. Thus if it be desired to discover who is the member for Holland, or Hallamshire, or Howdenshire, etc., it is only necessary to refer to the name of the place indicated to find under what principal heading the information will be found. In other published lists of constituencies the absence of a double reference causes confusion and disappointment.

This work is, moreover, the only one that gives a description of Divisional Boundaries, supplies engravings of armorial bearings of M.P.'s, of Judges, of Parliamentary Boroughs, and of County Divisions, bearing the "alternative" designations of Municipal Corporations to which arms have been granted.

In preparing the present edition I met with unusual reticence on the part of many new M.P.'s, some of whom supplied the briefest possible information concerning themselves, while others neglected to give any indication as to their places of residence.

Those who have been accustomed to refer to previous editions of this work will notice that the present volume contains fewer engravings of armorial bearings than has any of its predecessors. Heralds may also observe that arms do not appear with the biographies of some members who are most unquestionably entitled to bear them. This circumstance is due to the fact that the gentlemen referred to either neglected to supply the necessary information or furnished it too late. It is also worthy of note that several M.P.'s who shortly after their election stated that they did not bear arms, afterwards furnished drawings, or blazons, and particularly requested that engravings should be executed; most of these requisitions, however, arrived too late. Possibly some of the illustrations are arms of assumption; if so, I can only remark that they have been copied from book-plates, or seals, supplied by the gentlemen using them.

* "Any name placed before the description of a Division shall be the name of the division, and where the names of the divisions are in the alternative, the division may be designated by both or either of such names for all purposes."—Extract from Redistribution of Seats Act, 1885.

Although only a few weeks have passed since the meeting of Parliament, 7 new members have been elected, 1 resigned, 1 vacated his seat by accepting a Judgeship, 1 was unseated upon a scrutiny, 3 have become Honourables, 2 died, 5 have been sworn of the Privy Council, 25 elections have been held, and 4 seats are vacant.

The parliamentary populations are taken from a Government paper issued in December last, and the registered electors are from data supplied by Returning Officers.

To increase the referential value of the volume a complete list of Peers and Peeresses is appended, with their addresses and clubs, and the names, etc., of their heirs.

The Judicial section, which is unique, furnishes biographical sketches of the Judges of the Superior Courts of the United Kingdom, of the Judges of English and Welsh County Courts, of the Recorders and the Metropolitan and Stipendiary Magistrates of England, and of 151 Colonial Judges; and also supplies tabulated lists of Judges of County Courts, Recorders, and Colonial Judges. The scope of this section will probably bear extension, and I shall be glad to give mature consideration to any suggestion that may be made to me.

To the hundreds of noblemen and gentlemen who have furnished me with information, or revised the proofs submitted for their approval, I cordially tender my thanks.

COUNTIES, DIVISIONS, UNIVERSITIES, BOROUGHS, AND BOROUGH-WARDS, RETURNING MEMBERS TO PARLIAMENT.

At the Commencement of February, 1886,

WITH THE NAMES OF THEIR MEMBERS AND OF THE UNSUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES.

The engravings are copies of Borough Arms or of Corporation Seals; when inserted in the Division of a County the arms indicate the armorial insignia of the Borough after which the Division is named, either primarily or otherwise.

Names in italics are those of unsuccessful members at the last General, or subsequent, Election.

Figures following names indicate the numbers polled at the last General, or subsequent, Election.

• An Asterisk before the title of a constituency denotes that it is new; and when before the name of a member it indicates that he did not sit in the last Parliament.

Secondary names of Divisions, or Boroughs, are inserted in alphabetical order throughout the section—e.g., "Spalding, see Lincolnshire;" "Leamington, see Warwick."

Divisions of Counties and Boroughs are given in alphabetical order by their primary title under the heading of their respective county, and not in the numerical order in which they appear in the "Redistribution of Seats Act."

† Member sat in last Parliament for another constituency.

‡ Unsuccessful member sat in last Parliament.

[ ] Figures between brackets after the title of a constituency show the number of members.

Registered Electors. The figures within parentheses denote the number upon the Register in 1884 prior to the extension of the Franchise.

The Parliamentary populations of counties and divisions only are given—i.e., the Borough populations being deducted from the gross totals. The population quoted is in every case that of the late census, except it is otherwise stated.

JOHN GOSNELL & Co.'s

March 30th 1885

THE MANSION HOUSE,
LONDON, E. C.

The Lady Mayoress considers "Cherry Blossom" the most exquisite of perfumes

To
Messrs John Gosnell & Co

Ladies, have you tried Gosnell & Co.'s Cherry Blossom Scent? If not, make him buy you a bottle. You will thank me for mentioning it.—THE O. J.—Judy.

ADMIRALTY OUTRAGE.

Mr. G——L, the world-famous perfumer, asserts that the smell of the gunpowder or dynamite, on the fateful Thursday, was so strong ten miles from the scene of the explosion, that he was forced to scent his handkerchief with his "Fruit Bloom Bouquet" which is renowned as the strongest and best scent in the civilised world. The effect of this course was magical, and for leagues round the inhabitants believed, from the delightful fragrance surrounding them, that the cherry trees had burst into blossom. —Punch.

A CHERRY-ISHED CHARM.

Some flowers are reckoned precious
for their rich and fragrant scent,
But the blossom of our fruit trees
don't breathe scent to much extent;
Yet the ladies (best of judges!) say
no flowers in our fields
Have one-hundredth of the perfume
Gosnell's "Cherry Blossom" yields.
—Fun.

Messrs. Gosnell's Cherry Tooth Paste is an article of world-wide reputation, and needs no introduction from my pen; but their perfume called "Cherry Blossom" is new, and its exceptional fragrance induces me to bring it to the notice of our readers. Although powerful, and therefore economical, a few drops sufficing to diffuse a most agreeable odour of cherry blossoms, it is neither overpowering nor sickly, but one of those refreshing scents which every one likes.—Weldon's Ladies' Journal.

EXPLANATION OF TECHNICAL

PARLIAMENTARY EXPRESSIONS.

WITH BRIEF DESCRIPTIONS OF THE Duties of some of the Higher Officers of State.

ACCEPTANCE OF OFFICE. Under statute 6 Anne, c. 7, holders of offices of profit accepted from the Crown or the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, are incapacitated from a seat in Parliament, if the office be created since 1705. The acceptor of offices created prior to that year must vacate his seat and submit himself to re-election; but by the Reform Act, 1867, holders of the principal offices of State are no longer required to submit themselves to re-election, upon a transfer from one office to another. The principle established by the Statute of Anne has also been in the following manner modified and extended. The English, Scotch, and Irish judges, Colonial Governors, officers in the Excise or Customs, and Crown pensioners, are excluded from Parliament. Ambassadors, foreign ministers, and holders of diplomatic and civil service pensions are not excluded; and the four principal Secretaries of State, the Parliamentary Secretary of the Board of Trade, and the Postmaster-General are not disqualified from being elected to or sitting in Parliament.

ADJOURNMENT of its sitting is solely in the power of each House of Parliament; but if both Houses be adjourned for more than fourteen days, the Crown may by proclamation direct them to re-assemble. Adjournment by the House of Commons must be on question put and agreed to, except when there is "no House," and at six o'clock on Wednesdays. Motions for the adjournment of the House are used as the means of discussing a matter of which notice has not been given, but this power has been placed under limitations by the new rules of procedure. Adjournment of debate may be moved by any member who has not spoken to the original question, at any time before the question is fully put, but it cannot be moved in Committee, and discussion must, now, be kept strictly to the question of adjournment.

ADMIRALTY, FIRST LORD OF THE. Is Chief of the Commissioners, appointed to discharge the office of Lord High Admiral.

ALIENS are incapable of voting for the election of members of Parliament in England and Ireland, neither can they take their seats as members for any constituency.

AMENDMENT. AN. Is the mode by which the decision of the House on a question may be intercepted, by submitting for its consideration an alternative proposition, either wholly or partially opposed to the original question.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL, THE, is the chief legal adviser of the Crown; he exhibits informations and prosecutions for the Crown in matters criminal, and institutes suits in the Exchequer for anything concerning the Queen in inheritance or profit.

AUDITOR. [See Election Auditor.]

AVOIDANCE OF A DECISION, AN. May be effected by proposing an amendment to the original question, or by substitution in its stead of another question, such as the adjournment of the House, or of the debate; "the previous question;" or "that the orders of the day be now read;" or by enforcing the adjournment of the House, owing to the absence of a quorum.

AYES. Members voting in favour of a motion.

BALLOT, THE. [See Election of Members.]

BANKRUPT MEMBERS are by statute rendered incapable of sitting and voting. At the expiration of twelve months after a member has become a bankrupt, his election is void, and a writ will issue for the election of another representative, unless in the meantime the bankruptcy has been annulled.

BILLS, PRIVATE. [See Private Bills.]

BILLS, PUBLIC. In the House of Lords the consent of the House is not required to the introduction of a bill; in the Commons no bill can be brought in unless a motion for leave has received the assent of the House; and proposals for bills relating to religion, trade, taxation, and the grant of public money must be moved in a Committee of the whole House. Leave given, the bill is brought in and read a first time without amendment or debate: though a division may be taken on the question. A day is then appointed fo the second reading, previously to which the bill is printed, and each member supplied with a copy. Discussion of the principles of a bill may be held on any of its stages, except the stage of consideration as amended in Committee; but the most usual period for this discussion is the second reading. After being read a second time, the bill is referred to a Committee of the whole House, when the details are considered; and the bill is debated clause by clause, and the blanks filled up. The chairman of the committee then reports the bill to the House. This he does by stating to the Speaker that "the committee has gone through the bill," and either "made amendments thereunto" or has directed him to report the same without amendment. If no amendment has been made, the bill is ordered to be read a third time on a future day; but if the committee have altered it, the bill is ordered to be considered as amended. If the amendments are considerable, it is customary to reprint the bill. On the consideration of a bill as amended, no restraint is placed upon the amendments that may be made, or on the addition of new clauses of which notice has been given. On the third reading the judgment of the House is expressed upon the entire bill, and only verbal amendments can at this stage be made. The next question is that the "bill do pass," and the last that its title be determined. During the progress of the bill the House may divide on the following questions: 1st, on the first reading; 2nd, on the second reading; 3rd, that it be committed; 4th, that the bill be recommitted; 5th, that it be read a third time; 6th, that it do pass. These are exclusive of the divisions that may be taken on amendments proposed to be made to the bill in committee, or on its consideration as amended. After the passing of a bill, the Clerk of the House takes it to the bar of the House of Lords, and desires its concurrence. In the Upper House it passes through similar forms to those of the Commons. If the Lords agree with the Commons in the principle of a measure, but differ on matters of detail, the bill is returned to the Commons, bearing the amendments the Lords propose: these are considered by the Lower House, and if disagreed to, the bill is returned back to the Lords with a message assigning reasons for the disagreement. If the difference between the Houses be maintained, a conference (which see) may be held touching the amendments. Acts of amnesty are read only once in each House. Bills that have passed both Houses remain with the Lords, except those of supply, which are sent back to the Commons, to be by the Speaker presented at the bar of the Lords for the Royal assent.

BOARD OF TRADE, THE. Considers all matters especially relating to trade and the commercial relations of our Colonies. It consists of a President, and several high officers of State, though it is practically managed by a President and Parliamentary Secretary. It has the general superintendence of all matters relating to merchant ships and seamen, and exercises a supervision over railways, the administration of the Law of Bankruptcy, the registration of Joint Stock Companies, etc. It also collects and publishes statistics of the revenue, trade, commerce, wealth, population, etc., of the United Kingdom and its dependencies, as well as of foreign countries.

BRIBERY. Both the giver and the receiver of a bribe can be put into the witness-box and be compelled to answer any questions, however they might criminate themselves. The giver must say to whom he gave, and what he gave, and where he procured the cash. The receiver must say what he received, and from whom he received it. Any person who gives or receives a bribe is disfranchised for life, and his name is to be printed at the foot of every succeeding register of voters for that place in a distinct list, headed "disqualified for bribery, treating, or undue influence." A candidate personally guilty of bribery is incompetent to sit in a Parliament for seven years. He is liable to a penalty of 100*l.* to any person who will sue for it. He is liable to an indictment for misdemeanour, and to be punished with fine and imprisonment. He is incompetent to vote at any Parliamentary or municipal election; he cannot hold any municipal or judicial office; and, if a magistrate, is to be removed from the commission of the peace. The offences of "bribery," "treating," and "undue and corrupt influence" are clearly defined by statute law, and with increased stringency by the Corrupt, etc., Practices Prevention Act, 1883. The principal feature in the statute is the enforcement of a maximum scale of expenditure during an election. Expenditure above this scale is an illegal practice, punishable by fine, and by electoral and parliamentary disability. Payments by candidates for conveyance of voters is prohibited. Penalties for corrupt practices are increased; and the intervention of the Public Prosecutor at election trials is prescribed.

BUDGET, THE. Is the financial statement laid annually by the Chancellor of the Exchequer before Parliament of the estimated public income and expenditure of the following year, commencing on the 5th of April. In it he mentions what taxes it is proposed to repeal, to reduce, or augment, and what new ones are to be imposed. In his speech on this occasion the Chancellor reviews the financial condition of the country, comparing the income and expenditure of the previous year with those of preceding years, justifying the changes that are proposed to be made, and estimating their probable effects.

BURGESS. Is a person whose name appears upon the Burgess Roll of Parliamentary Boroughs.

BURGESS ROLL. Is a list kept in each borough of persons who are entitled to vote for the election of members to Parliament. Each burgess must be a male of full age, not an alien, and not have received parochial relief during the previous twelve months, or alms, or pension, or charitable allowance from the charitable trustees of the borough.

CABINET, THE. A Committee formed out of the Privy Council, which acts as the connecting link between the Crown and Parliament. It is formed of the highest officers of State, and always includes the First Lord of the Treasury, the Lord Chancellor, the Lord President of the Council, the Lord Privy Seal, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Secretaries of State, and the First Lord of the Admiralty. It also always includes three, but never more than eight, members, selected from the following functionaries:—Commissioner of Works and Buildings, Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, President of the Board of Trade, Judge-Advocate-General, Postmaster-General, Chief Secretary for Ireland, and President of the Poor Law Board. The members are all Privy Councillors, and being more immediately responsible for the conduct of public affairs, their deliberations are always considered confidential, and kept secret, even from their colleagues who are not in the Cabinet. Indeed, no record whatever is kept of its resolutions or meetings, nor has its existence ever been recognized by Act of Parliament. [See Ministry.]

CALL, THE, OF THE HOUSES. When urgent business is anticipated, according to the practice of both Houses a day is appointed, when the names of the members are called over, and those who are not then present are subject to censure or punishment from the House. This practice, however, has fallen into disuse.

CHAIRMAN OF COMMITTEE OF WAYS AND MEANS is elected by the House, if a difference arises in the Committee concerning the election. He presides when the House is in Committee, and sits at the table in the seat of the Clerk of the House. His vote is never given in Committee, except when, on a division, the numbers are equal. In the absence of the Speaker, he presides as Deputy Speaker, but only holds that office from day to day. He is also charged with a general superintendence over Private Bill Legislation.

CHANCELLOR OF THE DUCHY OF LANCASTER. Is an officer appointed chiefly to determine controversies between the Queen and her tenants of the duchy of Lancaster.

CHANCELLOR OF THE EXCHEQUER, THE. Is the principal Finance Minister of the Crown, and exercises the chief and most responsible control over the expenditure of different branches of the public revenue, the details of which are annually submittedfor revision. [See Budget.]

CHANCELLOR, THE LORD. Is created by the will of the Sovereign, by the act of delivering the Great Seal into his custody; he holds office during the pleasure of the Crown, but practically resigns office with his party. He is Speaker of the House of Lords, and by virtue of his office a Member of the Privy Council. He issues writs for summoning Parliament, and transacts all business connected with the custody of the Great Seal. He is principal adviser to the Crown in matters of law, President of the Supreme Court of Judicature, and head of the profession of the law. He appoints nearly all the judges of the superior courts, the judges of county courts, and all justices of the peace, and is patron of all Crown livings rated under £20. He is visitor in right of the Crown of all hospitals and colleges of Royal foundation; has the general guardianship of all infants, idiots, and lunatics; and exercises a special jurisdiction in questions relating to charities, and trust estates. He ranks above all Dukes not of the blood royal, and next to the Archbishop of Canterbury.

CHILTERN HUNDREDS. These comprise a range of chalky hills traversing the county of Bucks, between Tring, in Hertfordshire, and Goring, in Warwickshire. Their principal summit is Wendover, which is about 900 feet above the level of the sea. The office of "The Stewards of the Chiltern Hundreds" was established for the purpose of suppressing bands of depredators who in former times infested the forests with which the sides of these hills were covered, and it has been retained to enable members of the House of Commons to resign their seats by accepting office under the Crown. The duties and the remuneration of this office are nominal. The appointment is vested in the Chancellor of the Exchequer. The Escheatorship of Munster and the Manors of East Hendred, Hempolme, and Northstead are analogous offices.

CITY VOTERS. [See Borough Voters.]

CLERK OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. Is appointed by letters patent; performs the office of president during the election of the Speaker; sits at the upper end of the table, with two assistants; is responsible for the record of the proceedings of the House; signs all its orders, endorses bills sent to the House of Lords, and reads aloud such documents as the House may require. The appointment of the Clerks in the service of the House is vested in this officer.

CLERK OF THE PARLIAMENTS occupies an analogous position in the House of Lords to the Clerk of the House of Commons.

CLOSURE OF THE DEBATE can, by Standing Order, be obtained upon the initiation of the Speaker or the Chairman of Committees, and by the Vote of the House.

COLONIES, SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE. Has under his control all matters connected with the government of our extensive colonial possessions.

COMMISSIONERS. The technical name applied to the representatives of Scottish counties and boroughs.

COMMITTALS. The House of Commons has the power to repress any aggression committed upon its privileges, and it can order into custody any person so offending. Such imprisonment, however, expires at the end of the session.

COMMITTEE OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS, THE. Examine the accounts showing the appropriation of sums granted annually by Parliament to meet the public expenditure. It consists of eleven members, who are nominated at the commencement of each session.

COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC PETITIONS, THE. Reports throughout the session a classified list of the petitions presented to the House, and scrutinises them for the purpose of seeing whether or not they are in order.

COMMITTEES, STANDING. Two were appointed by the House of Commons for the session of 1883, to consist of not less than 60 members, to consider bills relating to law, trade, shipping, and manufactures, and it may be presumed that the House will continue the appointment of these Committees.

COMMITTEES. Those of the whole House are generally for the purpose of considering resolutions, or the details of a bill; or for financial purposes, such as those for "Supply" or "Ways and Means." Select Committees are for specific purposes, the numbers composing which, as a rule, consist of fifteen members. Presence of strangers is generally permitted by Commons Committees while witnesses are under examination, but not while the Committee deliberates. Members are entitled to be present throughout Committee sittings, unless the House otherwise orders, or unless it be a Secret Committee. The consideration of private bills is referred to Committees consisting of four members. All proceedings of Committees must cease when the Sergeant-at-Arms announces that "the House is going to prayers," and business transacted after such notice is null and void, unless such Committees be empowered to sit after prayers. When the whole House goes into Committee, the Speaker vacates the chair, the mace is placed under the table, and the Chairman of Ways and Means, or in his absence another member, is called on to preside.

CONFERENCE, A. Is the meeting of a delegated number of Peers and of members of the Commons' House to communicate a written message upon matters in which it is desirable that the two Houses should cooperate. At a "free conference" the subject of the written message may be taken into debate. Conferences are now rarely necessary, as the Houses receive messages transmitted by their clerks; and only one "free conference" has been held since the year 1740.

CONTROVERTED ELECTIONS. The trial of election petitions is regulated by a statute which transfers the entire jurisdiction to the Courts of Law. A petition complaining of an undue election must be presented within 21 days after the return of the writ, unless it questions the return on an allegation of corrupt practices, etc., in which case it may be presented at any time within 28 days after the day of payment. It will thus be seen that the hitherto not infrequent practice of promising at the election and paying after the time had elapsed for the presentation of a petition is met by permission being given to petition between 28 days after the payment of the bribe, whensoever made. At the time of presentation of a petition, or within three days after, security for £1,000 is to be given by those who present it for payment of all costs, charges, and expenses that may become payable by the petition.

COUNT-OUT. If a member takes notice of the number present, the Speaker counts the House, and if forty members be not present, the Speaker adjourns the House without question put, till next sitting-day. [See No House.]

COURTS OF REVISION. [See Registration of Voters and Revising Barrister.]

DEPUTY-SPEAKER. [See Chairman of Committee of Ways and Means.]

DISFRANCHISE. Is the act of taking away the privilege of the franchise.

DISQUALIFIED TO VOTE. Peers of the Realm—persons whose names do not appear upon the Register of Voters—under twenty-one years of age—not of sound mind—who have been convicted of bribery or perjury—members of the Police Forces—those who within the last twelve months have received any parochial relief, or who during the previous six months have been retained or employed for the purposes of any Parliamentary Election for reward.

DISSOLUTION. Is the civil death of the Parliament, and may be effected at pleasure by the Crown, or by length of time (seven years). It puts an end to the representative character of the members, and a Parliament cannot be assembled until after a general election.

DIVISION, A. Is the mode of taking the votes of each House of Parliament. When a division is demanded in the Commons, the Clerk turns a two-minute sand-glass, and the doors of the House are not closed till it has run down. Then, on the Speaker's direction, the doors are locked; he puts the question, the voices are given, and he directs the "ayes" and the "noes" to go into the right and left lobbies. Whilst passing through the lobbies, back into the House, the clerks record the names of those present and the tellers count the numbers. The tellers then return to the House, and their report of the numbers is finally announced by the Speaker.

DOUBLE ELECTION. A member returned by two constituencies must within seven days after the expiration of the time limited for the presentation of petitions against the returns, elect for which he will serve.

DOUBLE RETURN. When two members are returned for one place, they are sworn and take their seats, but by the Speaker's direction withdraw below the bar; nor can they vote till the return has been adjudicated upon.

DROPPED ORDERS OF THE DAY. Are the bills or orders standing upon the order paper which were not reached, owing to an adjournment of the House. They are set down on the paper for the next sitting-day.

ELECTION AUDITOR. Is an officer appointed annually, whose duty it is to take and publish an account of all expenses incurred at elections. Any payment made in respect of an election otherwise than through this official is declared to be illegal. [See Returning Officer's Expenses.]

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT. Writs for the election of Members, on occasion of a New Parliament, are issued by the Lord Chancellor, acting upon warrant from the Queen in Council, and, during a Parliament, upon the Speaker's warrant, or by order of the House. The returning officer of each county must, within two days of the receipt of the writ, give public notice of the time and place of the said election, which must not be later than the ninth nor sooner than the fourth day after such notice. In boroughs, the officer must proceed with the election within four days after the receipt of the writ, having first given two clear days' notice. The show of hands is abolished; and election is now by nomination in writing. If at the expiration of one hour after the time appointed for the election, no more candidates are nominated than there are vacancies to fill up, the officer declares those candidates elected, and returns their names to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery. But if the candidates nominated exceed the vacancies, the officer adjourns the election, and takes the poll, by ballot papers, according to a prescribed form. The officer at the close of the poll opens the ballot boxes and counts the papers, and returns the names of those who have the majority to the Clerk of the Crown, as elected candidates. In a contested election, polling-stations are provided, with compartments to enable voters to mark their votes, screened from observation. Each of these is presided over by officers appointed by the returning officer. The polling is commenced and carried on simultaneously at all the stations. In boroughs the polling must take place within three clear days, and in counties within the third and the sixth day after the day fixed for the election. The returning officer is to give public notice "as soon as possible" of the names of the elected candidates, and of the total number of votes given for each candidate. The officer then returns the writ, with the name or names of the person or persons elected endorsed thereon, "To the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery," to whom also all the documents relating to the election are delivered. Immediately after a public notice of election, an elected candidate is considered to be a member of Parliament, but cannot act as a legislator until he has taken the oaths. If any military be stationed in a place where an election is taking place, they are obliged to be withdrawn until the proceedings have closed.

ELECTION PETITIONS. [See Controverted Elections.]

ESCHEATORSHIP OF MUNSTER. [See Chiltern Hundreds.]

ESTATE OF THE REALM. The three estates of the realm are the three branches of the legislature—the Lords spiritual, the Lords temporal, and the Commons. The Sovereign, Lords, and Commons, in their united character, exercise none but legislative functions; they form the Parliament, and no bill can become law unless all concur in it. In addition, each has separate functions peculiar to itself. In the Sovereign the whole executive authority is vested. The House of Lords exercises judicial authority as a court of dernier ressort, and is a tribunal to which great officers of State, impeached by the Lower House, are amenable. The House of Commons is endowed with the sole control of the national expenditure, and with the levy of taxation to provide for that expenditure.

EXECUTIVE. [See Ministry, and also Cabinet.]

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS is a power possessed by the House of Commons. It has been exercised from time to time to free Parliament from the presence of discreditable members, such as men found guilty of forgery, perjury, etc., or as a punishment for offences committed against the House itself. The last occasion, February, 1882, was that of Mr. Bradlaugh.

FINANCE. The financial concerns of the State devolve upon the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

FOREIGN SECRETARY OF STATE, THE. Has the exclusive charge of the interests of the British Empire and British subjects in foreign countries. He negotiates all treaties, leagues, and alliances with foreign states either directly with the Foreign Minister at this Court, or through the British Ambassador abroad; and is the official organ and responsible adviser to the Crown in all communications between his Government and foreign powers.

FRANCHISE. In law, is defined as "a Royal privilege, or a branch of the Queen's prerogative subsisting in the hands of a subject." As applied to Parliament the term means the right to vote at an election for a member of Parliament.

FREEMEN. Are persons who have been admitted to the freedom of a corporate town, or of any other corporate body.

FREEMAN'S ROLL. Is a list of all persons admitted burgesses or freemen, who were entitled to a share or benefit of the lands and public stock of the borough before the passing of the Municipal Corporations Act, 16 and 17 Vict., c. 76.

GOVERNMENT ORDERS, are the bills brought in by the Government, and which they are entitled to place at the head of the list of orders of the day on Mondays, Thursdays, and Fridays.

HALF-PAST TWELVE RULE, THE. Prohibis, subject to certain exceptions, the House of Commons entering upon opposed business after 12.30 p.m.

HOME DEPARTMENT, SECRETARY OF STATE FOR. The duties and responsibilities of this high officer comprehend the maintenance of the internal peace of the United Kingdom, the security of the laws, and the general supervision of matters relating to the administration of criminal justice.

HOUSE OF COMMONS. According to the theory of the English constitution, the House of Commons represents the whole population. Although the members returned by the freeholders of the county are presumed to represent the interest concerned in agriculture; and the members returned by towns have their attention most directed towards the interests of trade; yet it is unconstitutional to suppose that members are delegates of any special community. Each member is held to represent the interests of the nation. The proceedings of the Commons are regulated by standing orders, the permanent bye-laws of the House, by sessional orders renewed annually, and by the custom of Parliament, as embodied in rules and regulations established by usage, or laid down in the journals. The following is an outline of parliamentary practice:—No motion for the grant of public money may be presently entered upon; but must be put to the vote on a future day. Notice, as a rule, must be given of every motion, and, except in committee, it must be seconded. There must never be more than one question before the House at the same time. However many amendments may be proposed upon a motion, each one is separately disposed of. If there be a majority for any words standing part of a question to be put to the House, then a vote is taken on the question with these words in it. In case of the rejection of every amendment, then the original proposal, whatever it may be, motion or bill, is put to the vote, stripped of all the counter proposals which the debate has called forth. No member can thus be driven to vote for what he does not approve; for after having voted in favor of such amendments as he may propose to the original question, he can vote against it in the end. No motion or bill may be offered upon which a judgment has been expressed during the current session; a resolution may, however, be rescinded, or an order of the House discharged. A bill that has passed both Houses contains all the sentences and words composing the Act of Parliament to which the Royal Assent is given. When a member speaks, it must be to some question before the House, or to introduce a question. The mover of a substantive motion is permitted a reply, and those who have spoken to the original question may speak again when an amendment or a new question, such as the adjournment of the debate, has been proposed; but otherwise no one is entitled to more than one opportunity of speaking on a question, except when the House is in Committee. No member may call another by his name; if it is desired to call personal attention to him, he must be individualized by the place he represents. Any member may interrupt another by "rising to order," i.e., calling the attention of the chair to the fact that a breach of order was then being committed. It is out of order for a member to refer to debates in the House of Lords. No bill is converted into law unless it has received three readings—that is, has been at three stated intervals brought under consideration in each House, has passed each House after the three readings, and has received the Royal Assent. All bills which affect taxes or duties, to the most trifling amount, can only begin with the Commons. Bills for restitution of honors and in blood always begin in the Peers. A member who moves the adjournment of a debate is by courtesy entitled to speak first when the debate is resumed. But this rule does not apply to the renewal of debate in a Committee of the whole House. For the sake of convenience, certain parties—ministerial, opposition, or otherwise—group themselves on benches which they appropriate to themselves. When several members rise to address the House, the Speaker or Chairman signifies who shall have precedence. Reference to the opinions of the Sovereign to influence a decision of the House is irregular. Forty is the quorum of the Commons.

INDIA, THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR. Has the control of all matters connected with our Indian Empire.

INSTRUCTION, AN, empowers a Committee of the whole House to consider matters not otherwise referred to them, and restricts or extends the order of reference to a Select Committee.

JOINT OCCUPIERS. In a county where premises are in the joint occupation of several persons as owners and servants, two persons may be registered in respect to such premises, providing the clear value of such premises is in excess of £10 a year.

KNIGHT OF THE SHIRE. The designation by which the representative of a county or shire was, prior to the Parliamentary, etc., Elections Act, 1872, distinguished from the representative of a borough.

LA REYNE REMERCIE SES BONS SUJETS, ACCEPTE LEUR BENEVOLENCE, ET AINSI LE VEULT. The words in which the Queen gives the Royal Assent to a bill of supply.

LA REYNE S'AVISERA. The words in which the Queen might refuse the Royal Assent to a bill.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE from the service of the House is granted to members for a specified time, on reasonable cause assigned.

LES PRELATS, SEIGNEURS, ET COMMUNES, EN CE PRESENT PARLEMENT ASSEMBLEES AU NOM DE TOUTS VOS AUTRES SUJETS, REMERCIENT TRES HUMBLEMENT VOSTRE MAJESTE, ET PRIENT A DIEU VOUS DONNER EN SANTE BONNE VIE ET LONGUE. The phrase adopted to express to Her Majesty the gratitude of her subjects for having given her assent to the bills of grace or amnesty that have originated with the Crown.

LETTERS addressed to members at the House of Commons are kept by a clerk from the General Post Office, who attends during the sitting of the House, and also from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., and delivers them only to the members personally, or to their authorised representatives. All letters or communications directed to the House are opened by the Speaker.

LODGER FRANCHISE. Every person claiming to be placed on the register of voters must make his claim to the overseers of his parish between the 1st and 25th day of August. [See Borough Voters.]

LORD ADVOCATE, THE. Is the principal law officer of the Crown and public prosecutor in Scotland, and when the Secretary for Scotland is a Peer he is intrusted with the conduct of Scotch business in the House of Commons.

LORD PRIVY SEAL, THE. Has the custody of the Privy Seal, which he must not put to any grant without good warrant under the Monarch's signet. The seal is used to all charters, grants, and pardons signed by the Sovereign, before they come to the Great Seal. He is appointed by letters patent, and takes rank next to the Lord President of the Council, and before all Dukes.

MANORS OF EAST HENDRED, HEMPOLME, AND NORTHSTEAD. [See Chiltern Hundreds.]

MEMBERS' LOBBY. This is strictly reserved for peers and members only, and for such permanent officials, secretaries of Ministers, and others as the Speaker may include in a special list of the House; and the House is empowered to punish neglect of this duty by committal to custody. The service on Committees may be enforced in like manner. Having secured a seat at prayers, a member is entitled to retain the same until the rising of the House, but he may not affix his name to any seat before the hour of prayer.

MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT are under a constitutional obligation to attend the service

MINISTRY, THE. Is the administration which exercises the powers of the Crown, in accord with Parliament, and more especially with the House of Commons. Some eminent party leader, who either has, or who hopes to obtain, the confidence of the majority of the House of Commons, is authorized by the Sovereign to form a Ministry, the members of which he selects from those favourable to his policy, he himself being the Prime Minister, and taking commonly the office of first Lord of the Treasury. It is indispensable that those Ministers who are not Peers should be members of Parliament. The Ministry exercises supreme authority, and includes the executive, the legislative, and the judicial powers of the Crown, and in it for the time being the whole of the governing power of the Sovereign is vested. [See Cabinet.]

MORNING SITTINGS. Whenever the House meets for business before two o'clock p.m. (except on Wednesdays and Saturdays), unless the House shall otherwise order, the Speaker adjourns the sitting at ten minutes to four o'clock until six o'clock, at which time any business undisposed of before four o'clock is taken after the orders of the day; but from two o'clock till seven are the customary hours for morning sittings, when the House is resumed at nine.

MOTION, A. The offer of a substantive proposition for adoption by the House, such as a motion for leave to bring in a bill, or of a resolution expressive of an abstract opinion. [See also Notices of Motion.]

NAMED. For a member to be named by the Speaker, is a a signification that in his opinion he has incurred the displeasure of the House. [See Suspension.]

NOES. Members voting against a motion.

NO HOUSE. There is "No House" if, upon notice taken, it appears that forty members are not present; but when the Commons are summoned by the Sovereign, or the Royal Commissioners, to attend at the bar of the House of Lords, any number of members constitutes a House. [See Count-out.]

NOTICES OF MOTION. The notice of an intended motion must as a rule appear on the business paper of the House on the day when it is to be moved. Tuesday evening sittings are appointed for the consideration of notices of motion before the bills set down for that day. The order in which notices of motion stand, is determined by a ballot.

OATHS OF MEMBERS. New members may take and subscribe the oath at any time during the sitting of the House, before the orders of the day and notices of motion have been entered upon, or after they have been disposed of, but no debate nor business may be interrupted for that purpose.

ORDER. [See Speaker, etc.]

ORDERS OF THE DAY, THE. Are the bills set down for consideration on a particular day. [See Government Orders.]

PARLIAMENT. Is the name of the supreme legislature of Great Britain. It was first used in the reign of Henry III. [See Estates of the Realm.]

PARLIAMENTARY AGENT. Is a professional gentleman who acts as Solicitor in promoting private bills.

PERSONS DISQUALIFIED TO SIT AS MEMBERS OF PARLIAMENT. Every member of the House of Lords, the Representative Peers of Ireland, all Scottish Peers, whether Representative or otherwise, sheriffs and returning officers for the counties and places for which they act, clergymen of the Established Church, Roman Catholic priests, aliens, the holders of Government offices created since the year 1705, Government contractors, bankrupts, and persons attainted of treason or felony. [See Acceptance of Office.]

PETITIONS. Every subject has the right of petitioning the Sovereign, or either House of Parliament, for the redress of grievances. Petitions to Parliament must be drawn up according to prescribed rules; those to the House of Lords must be addressed, To the Right Honorable the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled; and those to the House of Commons must be directed, To the Honorable the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland in Parliament Assembled; or, To the Honorable the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament Assembled. Electors commence their petition as, The Humble Petition of the Electors of the Parish of ———, sheweth that, etc., and a private individual must set forth his name and occupation thus.—The Humble Petition of Thomas Charles Burd, coal merchant, sheweth that, etc. Following this must be mentioned the grievance for which relief is desired, and the whole must conclude with a specific prayer, as, Wherefore your Petitioners humbly pray that your Honorable House will be pleased to, etc. Here must follow particulars of the special relief that is asked for, the concluding sentence being, And your petitioners, as in duty bound, will ever pray. If the prayer be omitted, the petition is useless, as the House will not attend to a mere statement of grievances. Immediately following the prayer must be written the signatures, one of which, at least, must be written on the same skin of parchment, or sheet of paper, as the petition. All signatures or marks must be original, procuration not being in any case allowed, except in cases of incapacity by sickness, for either a single individual or any body of persons, but the common seal of a corporation is acknowledged as a petition of the whole corporate body. Every petition must be written upon paper or parchment, be free from erasures or interlineation, and written in the English language, or accompanied by a literal translation which the member presenting it certifies to be correct; but no letters, affidavits, or other documents will be received. Petitions are rejected which contain intemperate language, or imputations upon the character or conduct of either House of Parliament, the Courts of Justice, or other constituted authorities. Reference is not allowed to be made to any debates, or to motions of which notice has been given; while petitions praying for a grant of public money, or charge upon the revenues of India, or for the remission of taxes or dues, are not received except on the recommendation of the Crown. Every member presenting a petition must affix his name at the beginning thereof, and is presumed to know that the standing regulations respecting petitions have been complied with. No debate is allowed when petitions are laid upon the table, and they stand referred to the Committee on Public Petitions, without any question being put; but if the petition relate to a subject with respect to which the member presenting it has given notice of a motion, and the petition has not been ordered to be printed by the Committee, such member may, after notice given, move that such petition be printed with the votes. Petitions under two pounds in weight may be forwarded by post, free of charge, to any member of either House, in parcels open at each end, and marked outside "Parliamentary Petitions."

PETITIONS, ELECTION. [See Election Petitions.

POOR LAW, OR LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD, is charged with the administration of the law of poor relief in England and Wales; it consists of several high officers of State, but is practically managed by a President and a political and a permanent Secretary.

POSTMASTER-GENERAL, THE. Is usually a Cabinet Minister. He negotiates postal treaties with foreign powers, makes contracts for the conveyance of the public mails at home and with the colonies, and superintends the whole department of the Post Office.

POT-WALLOPERS. A term formerly applied to voters in certain boroughs, where all who boil (wallop) a pot are entitled to vote.

PREMIER, THE. Is the head of Her Majesty's Government, is the connecting link between the Crown and the Cabinet, selects his colleagues in the Ministry, and is virtually responsible for the entire patronage of the Crown. His official position is usually that of First Lord of the Treasury.

PREVIOUS QUESTION, THE. Is a mode of attempting to avoid a direct expression of opinion upon a motion. It is effected by proposing, in lieu of the original motion, a motion "that that question be now put." A vote is taken on this, and if negatived the original motion is practically rejected; although the motion might be proposed again at a subsequent sitting.

PRIVATE BILLS. Are those introduced by companies or individuals for the purpose of enabling them to undertake works of utility at their own risk, and for their own benefit, or for procuring naturalization, change of name, etc. Private bills are brought in upon petitions signed by the suitors or their agents. The fees payable for promoting or opposing a private bill are stated in the Standing Orders. [See Bills, Public.]

PRIVILEGE, A QUESTION OF, is founded on a matter directly concerning the privileges of the House recently arisen, and calling for its immediate interposition. Such a matter may be considered without notice, and takes precedence of all other business.

PRIVILEGES OF MEMBERS. Every member is entitled to freedom of speech, to freedom from arrest and distress of goods, and to exemption from service on juries. He can introduce one person daily to the Strangers' Gallery. [See Speaker's Gallery.]

PROCEDURE. [See House of Commons.]

PROPERTY QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS was abolished in 1858.

PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT. Is an interruption of its sitting by Royal authority, and the Crown may, notwithstanding the prorogation, summon it for the despatch of business, by giving six days' notice by proclamation. Every bill and other proceeding, save impeachments, must be renewed de novo after a prorogation. By an Act passed in the year 1867, the Crown may prorogue Parliament by proclamation only, and without any subsequent writ or commission, but the Act does not apply to prorogation at the close of a Session.

PUBLIC BILLS. [See Bills, Public.]

PUBLIC WORKS, THE BOARD OF. Is responsible for the Public Buildings of Great Britain. It is controlled by a Chief Commissioner, who represents the Department in Parliament.

QUESTION, A. Is a motion moved and seconded, and put by the Speaker to the House as a question for their decision.

REGISTRATION OF VOTERS. Overseers' notices must be served in counties and boroughs on or before the 20th June. Notices of claims on or before July 20th in counties, and Aug. 25th in boroughs. Lists are made up in counties on the 31st July, and notices of objection must be served on or before Aug. 20th in counties, and Aug. 25th in boroughs. Courts of Revision are held in counties between Sept. 20th and Oct. 31st, and in boroughs between Sept. 15th and Oct. 31st.

REPORTING. A gallery is set apart for the exclusive use of newspaper reporters. It is, however, contrary to ancient usage that strangers should be present. Therefore the publication of parliamentary debates remains, theoretically, a breach of privilege.

RESIGNATION OF SEATS. [See Vacating Seats.]

RETURNING OFFICER'S EXPENSES. The charges of the returning officer are to be paid by the candidate (or persons proposing a candidate without his consent) in equal proportions. The charges are regulated by statute. The candidate cannot, without rendering his election voidable, pay the returning officer more than his authorized charges.

REVISING BARRISTER. Is an officer appointed annually for the purpose of revising the registered list of voters.

ROYAL ASSENT, THE. The Act by which the bills that have passed the Houses of Parliament become law, and without which they are null, and constitutes one of the highest prerogatives of the Crown, and is a bonâ fide exercise of legislative function, though there has not been an instance of its being withheld since the year 1707. The Royal Assent is either given by the Sovereign in person, or by Commissioners appointed for that special purpose. The Commissioners are usually three or four of the high officers of State. As soon as the Royal Assent has been given, the Bill immediately becomes an Act, having the effect and force of law.

SCOT AND LOT. Parish payments. When persons were taxed not to the same amount, but according to their ability, they were said to pay "scot and lot."

SCOTLAND, THE SECRETARY FOR. Has the control of all matters connected with Scotland.

SELECTION, THE COMMITTEE OF. Nominates the members on, and arranges the sitting and business of private-bill committees, and is also charged with the nomination of the Standing Committees.

SENIOR MEMBER, THE. Is the member returned at the head of the poll, not the member who has served the constituency the longest time.

SERJEANT-AT-ARMS, THE. Is an officer appointed by patent under the Great Seal, attached to the House, who is styled "the Serjeant-at-Arms attending the Speaker of the House of Commons." He is assisted by a deputy and several subordinates. During the sitting of the House he occupies a chair below the bar, and to him is delegated the maintenance of order in the approaches to the House and the adjoining offices. His duties are performed under the directions of the House, communicated to him by the Speaker. He apprehends and retains in custody all persons committed by order of the House.

SESSION. The Session of Parliament continues from the time of its meeting until it is either prorogued or dissolved. The House of Commons limits to one year the duration of the Mutiny Act, and votes the supplies for the public service by grants limited to the current year. The Crown is therefore compelled to resort to an annual assemblage of Parliament, which usually takes place early in February. Six days at least, but generally thirty or forty days, previous to the intended meeting, a proclamation is issued by the Crown, commanding the attendance of both Houses for despatch of business, usually at Westminster, but it may be at any place within the United Kingdom. The business usually transacted at the commencement of every Session is to consider the Speech from the Throne. One Bill, however, always receives a first reading, in order to assert the right of Parliament to protect the interests of the people before considering the subjects contained in the Royal Speech. The usual duration of the Session is from February till August: but no number or length of adjournments destroys its continuity. [See also Prorogation.]

SESSIONAL ORDERS are agreed to at the commencement of each Session, and are not intended to continue beyond that period.

SOIT FAIT COMME IL EST DESIRE. The words in wh ch the Royal Assent is given to Private Bills.

SOLICITOR-GENERAL. Is the legal adviser of the Crown, who ranks next to but holds co-ordinate powers with the Attorney-General.

SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF COMMONS. Is the representative of its powers, proceedings, and dignity. His chief duties are to preside over the deliberations of the House, to put the question, and declare the determination of the House. In the conduct of the debates, the Speaker calls on those members to address the House who, in his opinion, are entitled to precedence; he promptly and decisively represses disorder, and gives effect to the rules and regulations of the House. When he rises to enforce a point of order, the Houses is immediately silent; and his decision, based as far as possible on precedent, is, as a rule, accepted without cavil. But still the ultimate authority, upon all points, is the House itself. He also presents to the Sovereign addresses from the Commons; reprimands persons who have incurred the displeasure of the House; issues warrants of committal for breach of privilege; communicates with any parties, when so instructed by the House; exercises a general control over the business of the House, both public and private; expresses the thanks or approbation of the Commons to distinguished personages; adjourns the House if forty members are not present, and appoints Tellers on division. Under the new standing orders, when it appears to him that a subject has been adequately discussed, the Speaker may set in motion the closing of a debate; he may, after continued irrelevance on the part of a member, direct him to discontinue his speech, or if a motion for adjournment be, in his opinion, an abuse of the forms of the House, the Speaker may forthwith put the question thereon. He does not speak, except in his official capacity, or in Committees of the whole House; nor does he vote except to give a casting vote when the numbers are equal. He is elected at the commencement of each Parliament, and holds office until a dissolution. He gives state dinners to as many of the House as he can entertain, between the commencement of the Session and the Easter holidays. He receives a salary of £5,000 a year, and has a furnished residence; is a member of the Privy Council, and ranks next after Barons. It is customary for the Speaker, on retiring from office, to be created a peer, and to receive a pension of £2,000 a year for two lives. When incapacitated from attending to his duties, his place is occupied by the Chairman of Ways and Means.

SPEAKER'S GALLERY. Persons desirous of admission to the Special, the Speaker's, or the Strangers' Gallery, are to make written application to a member, who may apply, personally or by letter, at the office of the Speaker's secretary, and either bring or forward the application, which will be filed. The ticket of admission, bearing a number, will then be issued to the member so applying, and such number will correspond with the counterfoil. On any person presenting his ticket of admission he is required to sign his name and write his address, which must correspond with the name and address as contained in the written application and entered on the counterfoil. Applications for admission may be made for a week in advance. In cases of casual vacancies occurring during the sitting of the House, applications are to be made to the Sergeant-at-Arms, in the same form as that prescribed in the preceding regulations.

SPECIAL GALLERY. [See Speaker's Gallery.]

SPEECHES may not be read in the House by members.

STANDING COMMITTEES. [See Committees.]

STANDING ORDERS. Are for the permanent guidance and order of proceedings. They have been agreed to at various times, and if not repealed endure in force from one Parliament to another. One of these orders has been in force since March 29th, 1707.

STRANGERS, ADMISSION OF. Persons going to the offices of the House, on business, are admitted at such offices at all times. When the committees and Courts of Appeal are not sitting, none but persons going to the offices of the House are admitted; all others are stopped at the door of St. Stephen's Hall. When committees and Courts of Appeal are sitting, persons proceeding to them are permitted to enter the Committee Rooms, Courts of Appeal, and offices pertaining thereto only. During the sitting of the House no visitor is admitted to the Central Hall, unless he wishes to see a member, or has a ticket of admission to one of the galleries. No persons, except those having such tickets of admission, are permitted to go beyond the central and lower waiting halls, nor to enter the dining, tea, and smoking rooms, nor to go on the terrace, even though accompanied by a member. The Members' Lobby is strictly reserved for peers and members only, and for such permanent officials, secretaries of Ministers, and others, whose names are placed by the Speaker on a special list. Parliamentary agents are admitted to the Members' Lobby till half-past five o'clock p.m. None but ladies having their names on the list are permitted to enter the Ladies' Gallery Door, in the Speaker's Yard. After four o'clock p.m. the subway under Bridge Street is closed to all but members.

STRANGERS' GALLERY. [See Speaker's Gallery.]

SUPPLY, COMMITTEE OF. A Committee of the whole House, which considers the Government resolutions for granting to the Crown the sums necessary for conducting the various branches of the public service. These resolutions, having been considered and agreed to by the House, receive effect by Consolidated Fund Acts, passed from time to time during the session, subject, at its close, to a final appropriation to the services of the year by the "Appropriation Bill," which, after it has passed the House of Lords, is carried by the Speaker to the bar of the Upper House to receive the Royal Assent.

SUSPENSION from the service of the House for a week, or for longer periods of time, is a punishment, in pursuance of a standing order, imposed on members who have been named by the Speaker or the Chairman of Committees, for an infraction of the rules of the House of Commons.

TELLER. Is a member appointed by the Speaker when a division takes place, to count the number of members voting for or against a motion. Two are appointed for each side.

"THAT I DO NOW LEAVE THE CHAIR." Is the question put by the Speaker prior t the whole House going into Committee.

"THAT THE ORDERS OF THE DAY BE NOW READ." That the House proceed to further business without a decision taking place on the motion then under discussion.

"THAT THIS BILL BE COMMITTED." The question that is put to the House immemediately after the second reading, and which is rarely opposed.

"THAT THIS BILL DO PASS." The question that is put to the House after a bill has been read a third time.

"THIS DAY SIX (OR THREE) MONTHS." The motion that a bill be read a second time upon this day six months, is the ordinary mode of moving its rejection.

TIME OF MEETING. The House meets usually at a quarter before four o'clock, and has met at that hour for about the period of a century, when the Chaplain reads prayers. The Speaker, then seated at the Clerk's table, counts the House, and if forty members be present at four o'clock, the galleries are opened, and the business of each sitting is conducted according to the following routine: From four till half-past is devoted to the consideration of private bills and the reception of public petitions; at half-past four notices of motions on future days are given, and a ballot taken to settle the precedence of those motions, and unopposed motions for returns are moved; this over, questions are asked of members of the Government respecting matters of a public nature, and then the regular business of the sitting is commenced, namely, the consideration of the orders or motions set down for that day.

TRADE BILLS. [See Bills.]

TREATING. [See Bribery.]

UNDER SECRETARIES OF STATE. Two of these are attached to the office of each Secretary of State, one being usually permanent, and the other dependent upon the administration in power.

UNDUE INFLUENCE. [See Bribery.]

UNION, THE. Denotes the act by which the two separate kingdoms of England and Scotland were incorporated into one under the title of the Kingdom of Great Britain. The first Parliament subsequent to the Union met Oct. 23rd, 1707. The Union of Great Britain and Ireland took place on January 1st, 1801.

VACATING SEATS. By accepting an office of emolument from the Crown, a member at once vacates his seat. It is customary for a member who wishes to resign. to apply for the sinecure Stewardship of Her Majesty's Chiltern Hundreds; the Stewardship of the Manors of East Hendred, Northstead, or Hempolme; or for the Escheatorship of Munster.

WAR, THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR. Has the general control and direction of the army, in which he is assisted by the Commander-in-Chief.

VOTERS. [See Borough Voters, and County Voters.]

VOTES AND PROCEEDINGS, THE. Are the entries printed and published daily of the transactions of the House made at the table by the clerks, from which the journals are compiled.

WAYS AND MEANS, COMMITTEE OF. A Committee of the whole House, which regulates the issue of public money, to meet the grants voted in the Committee of Supply, and sanctions the imposition of the taxes necessary for the service of the current year. The votes of the Commons affecting the imposition of taxes take immediate effect in anticipation of the statutes necessary to make those votes a law. The Lords have the power to reject any bill that passes through their House; but the exercise of this power as regards a bill touching taxation, is "justly regarded by this House with peculiar jealousy," as was resolved by the Commons, July 1860, after rejection of the Paper Duty Repeal Bill by the Lords in that year. [See Chairman of Committee on Ways and Means.]

WEDNESDAY SITTING. The House meets every Wednesday at twelve o'clock. Wednesday is set apart to the bills brought in by private members, and, unless previously adjourned, continues to sit until six o'clock p.m., when the Speaker adjourns the House without putting any question, and the business under discussion, or undisposed of, stands among the orders of the day for the next sitting of the House.

WRITS. In the event of a vacancy arising from death, or from becoming a Peer, or acceptance of office, other than the Stewardship of the Chiltern Hundreds, etc., during the recess of Parliament, a writ is issued by warrant from the Speaker, made out to the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery, as soon as the Speaker is notified of the death, or peerage, by a certificate under the hands of two members, or if he receive a notice from a member that he has accepted a disqualifying office. During the session the Speaker issues his warrant by order of the House upon motion made and agreed to. In the case of a new Parliament the original issue of writs lies with the Crown. Writs returnable for a county are sent to the Sheriff of the county, and those that relate to cities or boroughs are sent direct to the Returning Officers. By the Act of William III. it was ordered that the writs of summons should be "delivered to the proper officer," but no channel was pointed out for their delivery. In 1813, however, it was provided that the messenger, or pursuivant, of the Great Seal, or his deputy, after receiving the writs, should forthwith carry them to the General Post Office in London, and there deliver them to the Postmaster-General or his deputy, receiving an acknowledgment thereof in writing. The Postmaster-General, in his turn, is bound to despatch the writs by the first post; the Returning Officers are required, upon receiving them, to give an acknowledgment, setting forth the day and hour of delivery; and this memorandum is transmitted to the General Post Office in London, and filed there for reference. The London writs are delivered personally by the Messenger of the Great Seal.

ST. MARGARET'S CHURCH, WESTMINSTER, is the church of the House of Commons, and Members of Parliament are always entitled to seats therein.

"We talk about the beauty of the Greek Islands, and of the mingled grandeur and loveliness of the Mediterranean seabord; but I have never seen anything more beautiful than Wemyss Bay was yesterday, and I do not hesitate to say that there is no picture gallery in the world that can present from the hand of Nature such a picture."—Earl of Ravensworth.

"PAINLESS & PERFECT DENTISTRY."

A Pamphlet by Dr. GEO. H. JONES, F.R.S.L., Surgeon-Dentist, of 57, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury Square, London, with List of Diplomas, Gold and Silver Medals, and other Awards obtained at the Great International Exhibitions, forwarded gratis and post free.

"Dr. G. H. JONES, F.R.S.L., the well-known Surgeon-Dentist, of 57, Great Russell Street, London, has just re-issued his popular Treatise on the Teeth, which should be read by everyone wishing to have a good and sound set of teeth. 'Painless and Perfect Dentistry' is its title, which will be found fully justified on perusal of its pages, as many hints for the guidance of those seeking a really practical and sientific dental surgeon will be found. The care and treatment of the teeth, with much useful information concerning the teeth and its molars, is contained therein, and we cordially commend this brochure of Dr. G. H. Jones to the attention of our readers, which will be found a true guide, philosopher and friend.

"The concluding chapters of the book are devoted to a description of the author's method of Dental Treatment, which has obtained so high a reputation, and which seems to realise the desideratum of 'holding the mirror up to nature.'" — The Brighton Standard, December, 1885.

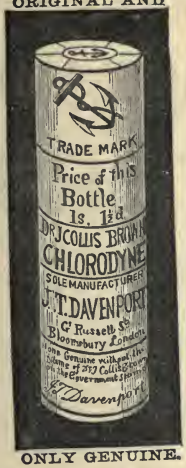
DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S

ORIGINAL AND



ONLY GENUINE.

COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE.—This wonderful remedy was discovered by Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE, and the word Chlorodyne coined by him expressly to designate it. There never has been a remedy so vastly beneficial to suffering humanity, and it is a subject of deep concern to the public that they should not be imposed upon by having imitations pressed upon them on account of cheapness, and as being the same thing. Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a totally distinct thing from the spurious compounds called Chlorodyne, the use of which only ends in disappointment and failure.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE. — Vice Chancellor Sir W. PAGE WOOD STATED PUBLICLY in Court that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was UNDOUBTEDLY the INVENTOR of CHLORODYNE, that the whole story of the defendant was deliberately untrue, and he regretted to say it had been sworn to.—See THE TIMES, July 13th, 1864.

ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE

CHLORODYNE.

THE GREAT SPECIFIC FOR CHOLERA, DYSENTERY, DIARRHŒA.

The GENERAL BOARD of HEALTH, London, REPORT that it ACTS as a CHARM, one dose generally sufficient.

Dr. GIBBON, Army Medical Staff, Calcutta, States.—TWO DOSES COMPLETELY CURED ME of DIARRHŒA.

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE rapidly cuts short all attacks of EPILEPSY, SPASMS, COLIC, PALPITATION, HYSTERIA, COUGHS, COLDS, ETC.

From W. VESALIUS PETTIGREW, M.D., formerly Lecturer at St. George's Hospital, London.

"I have no hesitation in stating that I have never met with any medicine so efficacious as an Anti-Spasmodic and Sedative. I have used it in Consumption, Asthma, Diarrhœa, and other diseases, and am perfectly satisfied with the results."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is a LIQUID MEDICINE which ASSUAGES PAIN of EVERY KIND, affords a calm refreshing sleep WITHOUT HEADACHE, and INVIGORATES the NERVOUS SYSTEM when exhausted.

From W. C. WILKINSON, Esq., F.R.C.S., Spalding.

"I consider it invaluable in Phthisis and Spasmodic Cough: the benefit is very marked indeed."

DR. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE is the PURE PALLIATIVE in NEURALGIA, GOUT, CANCER, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATISM.

From Dr. B. J. BOULTON & Co., Horncastle.

"We have made pretty extensive use of Chlorodyne in our practice lately, and look upon it as an excellent direct Sedative and Anti-Spasmodic. It seems to allay pain and irritation in whatever organ, and from whatever cause. It induces a feeling of comfort and quietude not obtainable by any other remedy, and it seems to possess this great advantage over all other Sedatives that it leaves no unpleasant after effects."

IMPORTANT CAUTION.

The IMMENSE SALE of this REMEDY has given rise to many UNSCRUPULOUS IMITATIONS.

DENT'S CHRONOMETERS, WATCHES, and CLOCKS have long held pre-eminent rank, as may be seen from Reports of various scientific persons :—

THE ASTRONOMER ROYAL, (Sir G. R. AIRY), in his Report to the Admiralty (13th of August, 1870) on the forty Chronometers entered for annual competition, says of M. F. DENT's Chronometer—

"THIS IS THE FINEST CHRONOMETER WE HAVE EVER HAD ON TRIAL."

N.B.—The LATE ASTRONOMER ROYAL (J. POND, Esq.), reporting in 1839 on the celebrated public trial, by order of the Lords of the Admiralty, which lasted thirteen years, during which nearly 500 Chronometers were tested, says:

"Your Chronometer, No. 114, is entitled to the First Premium. Actual variation in the year 0·54 hundredths of a second. This is superior to any other yet tried.

THE RUSSIAN IMPERIAL ASTRONOMER, M. STRUVE, of St. Petersburgh, reporting upon 81 Chronometers tested by the Russian Chronometrical Expedition, in 1843, says:

"The DENT CHRONOMETERS have held FIRST RANK in a brilliant manner. They contributed, beyond dispute, the MOST EFFECTUALLY to the exactitude of the results.

"M. STRUVE."

 By Command of the Emperor, the Russian Gold Medal of the Highest Order of Merit was presented to Mr. DENT.

SIR WILLIAM ARMSTRONG, Inventor of the Armstrong Gun, says:—

"9, HYDE PARK STREET, W., 14th November, 1861,

"The Chronometer Watch you made for me in December, 1859, has never been affected by travelling or riding; its variation at the end of a year was only 45 seconds. It has proved in every respect a most satisfactory Watch.

"W. G. ARMSTRONG."

"Mr. M. F. DENT,
32, Cockspur Street, Charing Cross."
